January 7: Dedicating Ourselves to Prayer

Prayer:

Heavenly Father, we come before You with humble hearts, acknowledging the importance of prayer in our daily lives. Lord, You designed us to commune with You constantly—to seek Your face, hear Your voice, and be transformed by Your presence. Today, we recommit to a life of prayer, recognizing that it is through prayer that we connect with Your heart and align ourselves with Your will.

Jesus, You taught us to approach the Father with confidence, trusting that when we ask, we receive; when we seek, we find; and when we knock, the door is opened. Holy Spirit, we ask You now to fill us, teach us to pray effectively, and empower us to remain steadfast in our intercession. Teach us also to approach Your throne with reverence and boldness, knowing that the courts of heaven are open to us through Jesus Christ.

Lord, we commit to making prayer a priority—not just a moment, but a lifestyle marked by intimate conversation with You. May our hearts be rooted in dependence on Your grace, and may prayer become the foundation of everything we do. We ask this in Jesus' mighty name. Amen.

Prayer Points:

1. Praying the Lord's Prayer

- Matthew 6:8,9: "When you pray, don't babble on and on as the Gentiles do. They think their prayers are answered merely by repeating their words again and again. Don't be like them, for your Father knows exactly what you need even before you ask him!"
- Matthew 6:9-13: "Pray like this: Our Father in heaven, may your name be kept holy. May your Kingdom come soon. May your will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us today the food we need, and forgive us our sins, as we have forgiven those who sin against us. And don't let us yield to temptation, but rescue us from the evil one."

2. Prayer for the Empowerment of the Holy Spirit

- Luke 11:9-13: "And so I tell you, keep on asking, and you will receive what you ask for. Keep on seeking, and you will find. Keep on knocking, and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks, receives. Everyone who seeks, finds. And to everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. You fathers—if your children ask for a fish, do you give them a snake instead? Or if they ask for an egg, do you give them a scorpion? Of course not! So if you sinful people know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him."

3. Praying in the Courts of Heaven

- John 14:15-17: “If you love me, obey my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, who will never leave you. He is the Holy Spirit, who leads into all truth. The world cannot receive him, because it isn't looking for him and doesn't recognize him. But you know him, because he lives with you now and later will be in you.”
- Luke 18:6-8: “Then the Lord said, ‘Learn a lesson from this unjust judge. Even he rendered a just decision in the end. So don't you think God will surely give justice to his chosen people who cry out to him day and night? Will he keep putting them off? I tell you, he will grant justice to them quickly! But when the Son of Man returns, how many will he find on the earth who have faith?’”

January 14: Vision for God's Kingdom

Prayer:

Lord, we come to You with hearts longing for Your Kingdom to come and Your will to be done on earth as it is in heaven. Show us how to live as Kingdom ambassadors, reflecting Your love and truth in our families, workplaces, and communities. Strengthen our faith to disciple others and support those spreading the Gospel across the globe. Teach us to act wisely, aligning our daily lives with Your eternal purposes. We declare the authority You've given us through Jesus to overcome fear, temptation, and obstacles. Holy Spirit, empower us to walk boldly in Your power and discernment, trusting that You will guide our steps. May Your Kingdom expand in and through us as we surrender to Your will. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Your workmanship is marvelous—how well I know it. You watched me as I was being formed in utter seclusion, as I was woven together in the dark of the womb. You saw me before I was born. Every day of my life was recorded in your book. Every moment was laid out before a single day had passed. How precious are your thoughts about me, O God. They cannot be numbered! I can't even count them; they outnumber the grains of sand! And when I wake up, you are still with me!"*

Help us to let go of anything holding us back from fully walking in the life You have prepared. Teach us to trust in Your plans, even when we do not understand the path ahead. Give us the courage to release past habits and fears, embracing our identity as Your children. Align our hearts with Your Kingdom purposes and open our eyes to the opportunities You've placed before us. As we face challenges, fill us with strength and joy. 3. Celebrating Diversity of Giftings in the Body

- 1 Corinthians 12:12-14: *"The human body has many parts, but the many parts make up one whole body. So it is with the body of Christ. February 18: Radical Obedience

Father God, we desire to live lives of radical obedience to You. Help us to trust You fully, even when Your ways are challenging or unclear. Help us to see ourselves as You see us—completely dependent on Your grace. Give us the courage to put others' needs ahead of our own and to reflect Your kindness and gentleness in every interaction. Instead, he gave up his divine privileges; he took the humble position of a slave and was born as a human being. When he appeared in human form, he humbled himself in obedience to God and died a criminal's death on a cross."*

March 4: Compassion for Others (Purim)

Prayer:

Lord, You are full of compassion and mercy, and we desire to reflect Your love to those around us. Open our hearts to the needs of others, and help us respond with kindness and generosity. Teach us to show compassion not only in action but also in thought, extending grace to those who hurt us or seem unworthy in the world's eyes. May our lives be marked by Your love, and may our compassion lead others to experience Your kindness and salvation.

Father, as Ester stood up against Haman and his plot to destroy the Jews, give us boldness to stand against the injustices of our culture. We pray that this will be a time of "turning the tide" against the oppressors. In Jesus' name, Amen.

March 25: Palm Sunday Preparation

Prayer:

Lord Jesus, as we prepare to celebrate Palm Sunday, we remember the day You entered Jerusalem as the humble King, riding on a donkey, fulfilling the prophecy. You came not as a conqueror but as the Prince of Peace, showing us the way of humility and love. We lay down our hearts before You, just as the crowds laid down palm branches. Teach us to surrender to Your lordship in every area of our lives. May we worship You with the same joy and enthusiasm as the people who cried, "Hosanna!" but with a deeper understanding of Your mission to bring salvation. Let this Palm Sunday remind us to carry Your light into a world in need of hope. We lift up our voices to declare You as King of Kings and Lord of Lords, thanking You for the peace and victory You bring. In Your holy name, Amen.

Prayer Points:

1. Honoring Jesus as King

3. Carrying the Good News

April 1: Passover & Resurrection Sunday

Prayer:

Father God, thank You for the perfect sacrifice of Jesus, our Passover Lamb, who redeemed us from sin and death. As we reflect on the significance of Passover, help us to remember the price that was paid for our freedom. Teach us to walk in the victory of the cross, living lives of gratitude and obedience. Let the blood of Jesus be a covering over our lives and our families, just as the blood of the lamb protected Your people in Egypt. May we prepare our hearts to honor You during this holy season.

And as Easter approaches, our hearts are filled with gratitude for the gift of Your Son, Jesus Christ. His death and resurrection changed everything, bringing us salvation, hope, and eternal life. Thank You for loving us so deeply that You were willing to sacrifice Your only Son to redeem us from sin and death. Lord, prepare our hearts to fully celebrate the miracle of the resurrection. Help us to let go of distractions and focus on the incredible power of the empty tomb. Fill us with the joy of knowing that Jesus has conquered death, and because of Him, we have eternal life. Teach us to live each day with that resurrection power, sharing the hope of Easter with those around us. Let our worship be filled with awe and thanksgiving as we reflect on the price You paid and the victory You won. In Jesus' name, Amen.

2. Celebrating the Resurrection

- 1 Corinthians 15:3-9: "I passed on to you what was most important and what had also been passed on to me. Christ died for our sins, just as the Scriptures said. He was buried, and he was raised from the dead on the third day, just as the Scriptures said. He was seen by Peter and then by the Twelve. After that, he was seen by more than 500 of his followers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he was seen by James and later by all the apostles. Last of all, as though I had been born at the wrong time, I also saw him. For I am the least of all the apostles. In fact, I'm not even worthy to be called an apostle after the way I persecuted God's church. "
- 1 Corinthians 15:20-23: "But in fact, Christ has been raised from the dead. He is the first of a great harvest of all who have died. So you see, just as death came into the world through a man, now the resurrection from the dead has begun through another man. Just as everyone dies because we all belong to Adam, everyone who belongs to Christ will be given new life. But there is an order to this resurrection:

Christ was raised as the first of the harvest; then all who belong to Christ will be raised when he comes back."

3. The Power of Christ's Blood

- Exodus 12:13: "But the blood on your doorposts will serve as a sign, marking the houses where you are staying. When I see the blood, I will pass over you. This plague of death will not touch you when I strike the land of Egypt."
- 1 Peter 1:3: "All praise to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. It is by his great mercy that we have been born again, because God raised Jesus Christ from the dead. Now we live with great expectation."

April 8: Post-Easter Reflection

Prayer:

Heavenly Father, we thank You for the power of the resurrection. Jesus' victory over sin and death changes everything for us. As we reflect on Easter, help us to remember that this celebration isn't just one day, but a daily reality. The same Spirit that raised Christ from the dead lives in us, empowering us to walk in victory. Teach us to live with that confidence, trusting You in every situation we face. Let our hearts overflow with gratitude for the incredible gift of salvation. As we encounter challenges, remind us that we are more than conquerors through Jesus. In Jesus' name, Amen.

3. Proclaiming the Gospel

April 15: Proclaiming the Good News

Prayer:

Lord Jesus, You have called us to be Your witnesses, proclaiming the Good News to the world. We are humbled and honored by this mission. Fill us with boldness and courage as we share the Gospel with others. Help us to speak with clarity and love, always pointing to You as the source of hope and salvation. Teach us to trust the power of Your Word, knowing that it never returns void. Stir our hearts with compassion for those who don't know You, and let our lives reflect the transformation You bring. Equip us with the wisdom of the Holy Spirit to reach others in a way that draws them to You. May our words and actions glorify You, and may many come to know the joy and freedom found in Your name. April 22: Living a Life of Excellence

Prayer:

Heavenly Father, we come before You with hearts full of gratitude. You are the ultimate example of excellence—full of wisdom, goodness, and perfection. As Your children, we desire to reflect Your excellence in everything we do. Help us to pursue our work, service to others, ministry, and personal lives with diligence, integrity, and purpose—knowing that everything we do is an act of worship unto You.

Lord, teach us to develop discipline and character so that our efforts bring glory to Your name. Remove procrastination, laziness, and complacency from our lives, and empower us to give our best in all areas—including our work, relationships, and our service to others. Give us eyes to see as you do. May our lives be a testimony of Your goodness, inspiring others to pursue Your excellence.

Grant us wisdom and understanding so that our decisions honor You. Help us remember that true excellence begins in our hearts, with a devotion to You that transforms our actions. As we seek to live with integrity and purpose, fill us anew with Your Spirit, guiding us on this journey toward a life that reflects Your greatness.

Thank You for grace that sustains us and Your Spirit that empowers us. We dedicate ourselves today to live lives of excellence—worthy of Your calling and bringing glory to Your kingdom. We pray this in Jesus' name. Amen.

Prayer Points:

1. Striving for Diligence and Integrity in All We Do

- Colossians 3:23,24: “Work willingly at whatever you do, as though you were working for the Lord rather than for people. Remember that the Lord will give you an inheritance as your reward, and that the Master you are serving is Christ.”

2. Developing Wisdom and Knowledge for God's Glory

- James 1:5-8 “If you need wisdom, ask our generous God, and he will give it to you. He will not rebuke you for asking. But when you ask him, be sure that your faith is in God alone. Do not waver, for a person with divided loyalty is as unsettled as a wave of the sea that is blown and tossed by the wind. Such people should not expect to receive anything from the Lord. Their loyalty is divided between God and the world, and they are unstable in everything they do.”

3. Living as a Testimony of God’s Excellence

- Philippians 2:14-16: *“Do everything without complaining and arguing, so that no one can criticize you. Live clean, innocent lives as children of God, shining like bright lights in a world full of crooked and perverse people. April 29: Prayer for a Worshiping Church

Prayer:

Heavenly Father, we come before You with hearts full of praise and gratitude. You are worthy of all honor, glory, and adoration. We pray that our church would become a true house of worship, where every member seeks to honor You in spirit and in truth. Fill us anew with Your Spirit, that our words, songs, and lives may reflect Your glory.

Help us to cultivate an atmosphere of genuine worship, not just during praise and prayer times but in every aspect of our daily lives. May our hearts be fixed on You, listening for Your voice and responding in joy, humility, and reverence. Lord, teach us to worship You with sincerity, not just through outward acts but from the depths of our hearts—overflowing with love, gratitude, and awe of Your greatness.

We ask that You increase our desire for Your Presence. Let worship be a lifestyle that transforms us and influences those around us. Help us to create a space where Your Spirit moves freely, and where authentic praise flows from hearts fully surrendered to You.

May your Church be known as a place where worship is heartfelt, where Your presence reigns, and where Your name is glorified in all we do. We trust You to do this work in us, and we give You all the praise and honor, now and forever. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

Don’t copy the behavior and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think. Then you will learn to know God’s will for you, which is good and pleasing and perfect.”*
- Colossians 3:16,17: “Let the message about Christ, in all its richness, fill your lives. Teach and counsel each other with all the wisdom he gives. Sing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs to God with thankful hearts. And whatever you do or say, do it as a representative of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks through him to God the Father.”
